LISTENING SKILLS

V.Ryan © 2010 World Association of Technology Teachers

1. Why is listening to teacher instructions during a lesson important?

2. If even one person constantly distracts the class, how does this alter the way the other pupils learn?

3. Why is it important to put your hand up rather than shouting out answers.

4. How do behave during lessons? Do you listen to instructions? Do you help others? Have you ever distracted others?

5. During your time at school your learning has probably been damaged by other people making it difficult for the whole class to learn. Describe one incident.

6. How can a noisy class affect the amount of work you and other pupils do in a lesson?

7. What helps you learn in lessons? For example, watching videos, using computers etc....

8. Complete the rich picture (next page). You may want to use all or some of the statements below and add your own. Add drawings / sketches.

Helps me learn
Helps me pass exams
I will get a better job
Good manners
Allows others to learn
Allows the teacher to teach me
I will learn more things
Helps me be a mature person
